THE KEYS OF ST. PETER

A PUBLICATION OF ST. PETER'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK

Have you ever told friends or family members about a favorite book, TV show, movie, or performer? Have you ever told them that you think they will love it if they give it a try? That is an act of evangelism. An evangelistic encounter is what happens when one person shares a positive personal experience (without manipulation or an “agenda”) and connects with another person’s need. The connection is the key.

It goes without saying that the Christian Church and contemporary culture are not connecting very well. Even though the European Enlightenment concepts of liberty, equality, and brotherhood are directly derived from What Happened on the Cross and in the Empty Tomb, secular culture tries to maintain these virtues (with varying degrees of sincerity and success) without God. This is neither new nor surprising, and it is a problem worthy of our attention, prayer, and action.

What is surprising is that this disconnect with the Church is shared by many Christians. This is because everyone—absolutely everyone, including those who believe in God—is starving for meaning, mercy, and grace. Instead, what many hear from the Church—whether from institutions, sermons, or just plain jerks—are moral prescriptions driven by fear of moral failure, conditional inclusion offered only to those who swear loyalty to a particular position or opinion, or relentless hectoring to become the “best versions” of themselves. Those are anti-Gospels with no grace, no mercy, and no ultimate meaning.

St. Peter's
Episcopal Church
Columbia, Tennessee

In just the past six months, dozens of disaffected or exiled households of all ages from other faith traditions or congregations have come through our doors and joined us in worship, prayer, and fellowship. In this, they follow a long line over the years and decades of visitors who became members and members who became leaders in our parish family. You, the people at St. Peter's, have served our Lord as a beacon of grace for generations because of your enthusiasm for what He means to you and your simple, human kindness—which are inseparable. Like a battlefield nurse tending to the wounds of ignored, neglected, outcast, or hurt children, the people of St. Peter's themselves are the "living stones (I Peter 2:5)" that comprise a sheltered haven of refuge, healing, and peace.

There are too many heroic servant-leaders to number, much less name. They are found in every facet of our common life: Worship, Christian Education, Outreach, Pastoral Care, Fellowship, and Administration. They are chief among the many gifts and blessings we give thanks for every Sunday at the Altar. They make possible the milestones we have passed:

- Our Average Sunday Attendance has returned to its pre-COVID peaks and is doubled by 100-200 people who view livestreamed Sunday services every week.
- The number of Confirmations, Receptions, and Adult Baptisms continue to grow at historic rates.
- Of the 115 Pledges we have received so far for 2023 (not including a dozen or so who pledged for 2022 and have not yet made their pledge and have told us that they plan to), 17 are new and 39 are increases over the previous year's.
- To maintain this growth and to prepare for future growth, we have enhanced our staffing:
  - A part-time salaried Director of Administration to oversee and improve our practices and methods.
  - A part-time hourly Front Office Assistant to manage our regular operations and to assist visitors.
  - A part-time hourly Director of Communication who oversees and plans to improve our print and electronic media.
  - Two positions paid a nominal stipend: one to oversee the administration of our Pastoral Care needs and our New Membership process, and another to prepare and produce our Audio/Video offerings through our weekly live-streamed services.
- Louis and Nisty Day, who were faithful members and leaders for decades, left a Charitable Trust worth $400,000 in undesignated funds to be shared between St. Peter's and St. John's, Ashwood.

- Lawrence Hite, who was a member only very briefly, left us an additional undesignated $10,000. These undesignated gifts have been placed in the Operating Reserves to be used as the Vestry directs in 2023. Our finances are strong.
- St. Peter's 2023 Budget gives over 10% of its Plate and Pledge revenue to ministries and helping agencies, not including distributions from any of the three Funds that support Outreach.

So where do we go from here?

Of course, God is the One Who sees and guides us toward the future He has in mind. From what we see right now, there are a few critical opportunities that would serve the needs of our parish and our community and might help accelerate our growth:

- We are strengthening our Pastoral Care ministries to increase the number of Lay Eucharistic Visitors (LEV) who assist the clergy in their home visits.
- We plan to offer a quarterly "Membership 101" class designed to help interested visitors and potential members learn about our culture, our worship, and our opportunities to help serve others.
- We hope to launch an effective Seniors' Ministry to serve and to invite into service our post-retirement aged households.
- We also hope to launch a fellowship focuses on the needs and experiences of families with children.
- There are many other opportunities and needs that our Vestry will actively address in the upcoming year.

God willing, we will continue to grow. As we grow, we will be able to help more people. We may even find ways to help revitalize and re-ignite the Episcopal congregations that either struggle or have been shuttered, so that the needs of our growing county can be addressed.

We know the human need for the Gospel because we know ourselves. We know the Story that meets our need. And we know that the Story is a Person. And we know that Person to be Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God Incarnate, Crucified, Resurrected, and Ascended into Heaven. We know that Story and we love it. When we share with others our positive personal experience of that Story (without manipulation or agenda), we reflect Him like mirrors facing a horizon's rising sun.

Ash Wednesday

On Wednesday, February 22nd, St. Peter's will celebrate Ash Wednesday services. Services of the Holy Eucharist with the Imposition of Ashes are scheduled for 6:45am, noon, and 7:00pm. All services will be held in the church.

Mother/Daughter Tea

Join us on Sunday, February 19th, from 3:00-4:00pm as we gather our mothers and daughters for a Sunday tea! Guest speaker is Cindy Sims, Executive Director of Center of Hope. All ages and kinships are welcome, and there is no charge. Please RSVP to Jane Rodriguez-Keeton.

Vaccination Clinic

On Sunday, February 12th, after the 9:15am service, Dr. Sami Naddy has offered to hold a vaccination clinic here at the church. He will have flu and pneumonia vaccines and other specific vaccines upon request. Please contact the office by Monday, February 6th, so Dr. Naddy can order all requested vaccines. If you're interested in receiving a vaccine, please email us at office@saintpeterscolumbia.org or call 931-388-3331. We will need your name, address, date of birth and insurance info so Dr. Naddy can bill your insurance. If you do not have insurance, we may be able to arrange to cover the cost.

Visit from Bishop Bauerschmidt

Bishop John Bauerschmidt will join us next Sunday, February 5th. He will be conducting the office of Confirmation at the 11:00am service. We'll also have a reception after the 11:00am service to honor the Bishop and the confirmands. Additionally, it is customary for the loose plate offerings and undesignated checks on that day be given to the Bishop's Discretionary Fund.

Men's Fellowship

The Men's Fellowship meets Thursday, February 2nd, in the Parish Hall at 5:00 PM.

Our meal will be blessed at 6:00 PM. Join us for great food and fellowship. All men are welcome. Bring your appetite!

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper!

Mark your calendars for our Shrove Tuesday celebration on February 21! Dinner and the evening's festivities begin at 6:00pm. Youth, please arrive at 5:00pm to set up!

Please reach out to me if you can donate pancake mix, bacon, sausage, milk, tea and juice. Youth and parents, we need your help to flip pancakes!!!

I love the tradition of everyone grabbing what is in their pantry and getting rid of it before Lent begins. If you have a big box of cookies or Valentine's candy that has to go before Lent, bring it to our goodies table.

In addition to sponsoring church youth events, we want to make this a community event by raising money and donating to a local cause. We will vote and announce the winner on FAT TUESDAY!

The choices are:

- Boys and Girls Club
- Maury County Students in Transition (assist home-insecure families)
- Crossroads to Home

Between now and February 21, put aside a coin jar and whatever you collect through that date you can bring to our pancake dinner.

We will also have a pancake flipping contest for all ages. Winners will receive a prize! The entry fee for the contest is a donation of any amount from $1.00 to $100.00.

Lenten Supper Speaker Series

Join us for our annual Lenten Suppers and Speaker Series! This year, the topic will be the History of the Episcopal Church in Southern Middle Tennessee. Our guest speakers will talk about area Episcopal churches that are still active, and some that are no longer in existence.

The dates are as follows. Please follow us online and via email for information on menus and speakers.

- Wednesday, March 1
- Wednesday, March 8
- Wednesday, March 15
- Wednesday, March 22
- Wednesday, March 29

Confirmation and Communion Classes

Beginning in 2023 we will hold two different classes. The first is a confirmation class for children. If you are thinking about confirmation in 2023 for your child, please reach out to Jane Rodriguez-Keeton so we can include your child in the youth confirmation class. This class includes sixth graders up to high school age.

The second is a communion class. Parents, if you are interested in a communion class for your child, please let Jane know. This class will focus on 2nd-5th graders. We will discuss what happens and the meaning behind it.

People's Table - A BIG Thank You!

I want to thank all of those that helped with the People's Table at First United Methodist Church in January. I'm deeply grateful for everyone's assistance in providing the food, preparing the food, serving the food to the patrons of the People's Table at each of their tables, washing all the pots, pans and utensils, and wiping down all the surfaces in the kitchen after the meal is served.

Also, thank you to Fr. Chris for always being there to visit the patrons and saying the blessing before the meal is served. We served 499 plates in January. St. Peter's always has a great group of volunteers. If we had any food left over, we took it to Place of Hope on James Campbell Boulevard, which always appreciates extra food that a function has left over.

St. Peter's could not provide this valuable service to the community without all the volunteers each week. I'm also grateful for the financial assistance to purchase the food provided by the donations to the People's Table account. The next time St. Peter's serves will be the first four Fridays in May 2023. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns about the People's Table.

Thank you,
Joann Belcher

Lenten Devotional Resource: Word In The Wilderness By The Rev. Malcolm Guite

Some (not all) like to add a spiritual practice to the observance of Lent. For those in this category, I recommend Word in the Wilderness: A Poem a Day for Lent and Easter by Fr. Malcolm Guite, a priest in the Church of England.

From an article entitled “A Poet for Bruised Evangelicals” in the January/February issue of Christianity Today:

“Guite is an anomaly that somehow makes sense: He’s an Anglican priest, poet, academic, and singer-songwriter. He enjoys smoking a pipe and rides his Royal Enfield café racer through the English countryside. He meanders on lengthy daily prayer walks and sings and plays guitar in a blues band called Mystery Train...”

“One of his Sonnet and Song tour promotions went so far as to describe him this way: ‘If John Donne or George Herbert journeyed to Middle Earth by way of San Francisco, took musical cues from Jerry Garcia and fashion tips from Bilbo Baggins, and rode back on a Harley.’”

“[Guite says] I do belong to a tribe, I belong to this tribe of story keepers and believers who have this gospel—who are in the teeth of the resistance of a secular society that thinks they’re done. So I wrote these sonnets not to be self-expressive but to give beautiful, memorable voice to the story of my tribe...[I am] a full-time poet at the service of the church, trying to sing the Christian song into the world and make it attractive to the world, and draw people in.”

Reports From the 191st Annual Diocesan Convention

On Friday, January 19, and Saturday, January 20, lay representatives and clergy from the Episcopal Diocese of Tennessee gathered for our annual meeting. Here are a few remarks from some of our delegates:

I was delighted to attend the 191st convention of the Diocese of Tennessee, hosted by St. David's Church in west Nashville. As someone who grew up in this diocese but moved away more than 30 years ago, it was a pleasant surprise to connect with so many old friends. It was also an opportunity to get to know some fellow St. Peter's parishioners better. Roughly 180 people were in attendance, including 50 clergy plus lay delegates from each of the 40 or so churches. Bishop Bauerschmidt presided over the convention proceedings, which essentially is a business meeting for the work of the diocese. The parishioners of St. David's worked tirelessly as hosts and volunteer staff throughout the weekend, providing us lunch both days, plus snacks and coffee and a welcoming word or smile. We heard reports from various committees, approved the budget, and elected delegates to the (nationwide) general convention and members of the Bishop and Council (essentially a vestry for the diocese). It was gratifying to see the convention focus on things that unite us as churchmen and churchwomen and avoid topics that tend to divide us. We celebrated the Holy Eucharist both days, and St. David's pulled out all the stops with both choir and organ. The Rt. Rev. Brian Cole, bishop of the Diocese of East Tennessee, was keynote speaker for the convention and also preached at the Saturday eucharist. St. Peter's was well represented with five lay delegates plus Father Chris and Deacon Bonnie—one of the largest contingents aside from the big Nashville churches.

Chip Wallace

Attending the 191st Convention gave me a visual sense of just how strong and alive the Episcopal Church continues to be. It was a honor to be included as an alternate delegate. I cherish the time I got to spend with my fellow parishioners and I certainly grew to love each of them in two short days.

Faithfully,

Janet Shadoin

Attending the Diocesan Convention gave me a look into who our diocese is and how it operates. I had very little knowledge of how we functioned prior to attending. While the convention was very much a business meeting, it also had a strong feeling of a family reunion. Worshiping with such a large group of our extended Episcopal Diocese of Tennessee family was a great experience. Having the opportunity to hear important and powerful messages from Bishop Bauerschmidt and Diocese of East Tennessee Bishop Brian Cole were particular highlights.

I left the convention with the feeling that the diocese is more than just some sort of corporate headquarters. I believe this helped me get a little perspective to see our mission churches for what they really are. They aren't just someone else's churches that need monetary support. They are St. Peter's missions to bring faith and Christ's love to people who might not otherwise see it. I also really enjoyed spending time with the other delegates from St. Peter's. Our parish is blessed with great people

Ben Wrather

We thank our delegates for their good work: Anne Ciccoline, John Finney, Janet Shadoin, Chip Wallace, and Ben Wrather

2022 Budgeted Expenditures - December Financials

A Narrative Budget can be a helpful tool for non-profit organizations such as churches to understand how their funds are actually being used. Since the overwhelming amount of their work is done by the people on their staff, the staff line-item can seem to be excessive relative to other line-items.

This visual is based on a chart that breaks down staff expenses by the time each staff member spends in each ministry category (plus non-staff expenses). For example, since our Organist and Choir Director lead our music, and since music in churches is part of worship, their salary is added to the Worship ministry category.

The expenses relating to the clergy (which, at St. Peter's right now is only Fr. Bowhay—Deacon Bonnie and Fr. Ted are not paid for their time or work by anyone) are calculated as a percentage of the total time in a year and then multiplied by his salary, stipend, and other ministry costs. Administrative staff, who help him perform these tasks, have the same percentage estimate as the Rector's. This figure is not perfect and is not meant to be: it is only meant to give a general sense of how much money the church invests in each ministry.
